San Luis Obispo, CA – June 1, 2014 -- The law offices of Stuart | Moore are pleased to announce the addition of a new attorney. Michael K. Staub accepted the invitation to become an Of Counsel lawyer in the firm.

Michael K. Staub began his legal career working in the areas of construction defect and environmental coverage defense litigation in Los Angeles and Century City during the mid-90's. In 1997, he accepted a position with a well-respected regional firm in Spokane Washington to help expand the business, banking and healthcare department. Mr. Staub was made partner of the firm in 2002 and continued to develop a significant business and banking practice, representing a wide variety of institutional and private equity lenders. Mr. Staub also handled business formations, mergers and acquisitions, real estate transactions, construction contracts, and commercial litigation.

Mr. Staub has represented major national corporations and institutional lenders in general corporate matters, loan transactions, loan collateralization issues, secured transactions, contract litigation, and foreclosures of real and personal property. He also has significant experience negotiating and litigating construction contracts, representing lenders in bankruptcy proceedings and pursuing collateral and guarantor recovery on defaulted loan transactions. He routinely counsels community banks on loan file evaluations and personnel issues. Other areas of expertise include complex business transactions, bond financing, and loan transactions and contracts involving Native American tribes and their gaming operations.

When away from the office, Mike enjoys auto restoration, motorcycling, competing in triathlons, spending time outdoors with family and friends, golf, and coaching youth sports. He has been married 26 years and has a daughter and two sons.

Recognized as a premier boutique law firm representing financial institutions and small to medium size businesses, the attorneys of Stuart | Moore now bring over 100 years of reputation and experience to the practice. The firm has built its practice by offering the services, specialization and expertise of the finest large firms with the personal service and affordable fees of a small firm.
