SANTA CRUZ, Calif., Oct. 21, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Santa Cruz County Bank (OTC: SCZC), a top rated, locally owned and operated full-service community bank headquartered in Santa Cruz County, today announced the completion of their previously announced merger with Lighthouse Bank. Lighthouse Bank shares, which traded on the OTC under the ticker symbol "LGHT" will begin trading today under the ticker symbol "SCZC".

Founding Directors of Lighthouse Bank, John Burroughs, Craig French, Stephen Pahl and James Weisenstein have joined Santa Cruz County Bank's Board of Directors. Former President of Lighthouse Bank, Jon Sisk has joined Santa Cruz County Bank's Management team as Regional President.

"We are thrilled to announce the completion of our merger with Lighthouse Bank. Today we welcome four talented individuals to our Board, each of whom bring extensive knowledge and experience in community banking. We look forward to serving our community with our expanded team," said William J. Hansen, chairman of Santa Cruz County Bank.

"The successful merger of our two top performing and nationally recognized financial institutions positions Santa Cruz County Bank as the largest community bank in the Monterey Bay Area. Our greater scale, expansion into Silicon Valley, and plans to expand into the Monterey County opens opportunities to compete for larger business relationships while meeting the expansion needs of our existing business relationships," stated David V. Heald, president and CEO of Santa Cruz County Bank.

Both Lighthouse Bank branches, one in Santa Cruz and one in Cupertino, remain as full service branches. Customers of both banks will have access to a total of seven branches, six in Santa Cruz County and one in Cupertino. The strategy for integration of Lighthouse Bank into Santa Cruz County Bank is well underway. A complete systems conversion is scheduled to take place in early April 2020.
